

A replacement for the HOD

I have this case where an activity is assigned to the HOD, but I want the wf engine to be able to assign this activity to another user in case the HOD is not available, I thought of doing this by depending on a group to be the participant instead of the HOD, but how can I add a condition that will select the user that belong to the group and also to the department of the performer?