

Custom Login Form

Hii

Can I customize a login form as per my requirements by adding additional custom buttons, such as clear and not registered without creating a form separately?

If no, then I have a plan to create a form with username, password fields and is it possible to redirect to intended participant as we do with the default login form which joget provides.

Thanks a lot